

Collective prayer

Divine Service
Sunday, August 23, 2020

Theme: Cornerstones of the gospel – Prayer

Sub-theme:

Message:

Communal prayer is an essential component of congregational life.

Bible verse: Acts 1: 13–14

And when they had entered, they went up into the upper room where they were staying: Peter, James, John, and Andrew; Philip and Thomas; Bartholomew and Matthew; James the son of Alphaeus and Simon the Zealot; and Judas the son of James. These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication, with the women and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with His brothers.

Summary

- Collective prayer is an essential component of congregational life.
- At the same time, communal prayer is both an identifying feature and a duty of the church of Christ.
- In order to fulfil this duty, the believers must sanctify themselves and concentrate on that which binds them together.

Notes:
