Sub-theme:

Message:

In all that we experience we find comfort with God.

I, even I, am He who comforts you. Who are you that you should be afraid of a man who will die, and of the son of a man who will be made like grass?

Summary

God is our Comforter, who is elevated above all earthly things. Divine comfort is revealed to us in the form of

- peace,
- support and certainty,
- new courage,
- security, and
- hope.
