Then Miriam the prophetess, the sister of Aaron, took the timbrel in her hand; and all the women went out after her with timbrels and with dances.

Reading: Exodus 15: 1–9

Summary

- When God leads us out of a hopeless situation, we are to show Him our gratitude and joy.
- Gratitude also comes to expression when we worship God, obey His will, and help our neighbour in difficult situations.
- Even if our neighbour's way of doing things or his attitude do not always please us, we should be tolerant and not try to give the impression that our own prejudices are an expression of the will of God.
