

Holy Communion: a profession of faith

Divine Service
Sunday, April 3, 2022

Theme:
Passiontide

Message:
We profess Jesus Christ in every celebration of Holy Communion.

Bible text: 1 Corinthians 11: 26

For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death till He comes.

Summary

- The celebration of Holy Communion is a profession of faith for the congregation as well as each and every individual within it.
- We profess our belief in Jesus Christ, show Him our gratitude and love, as well as our longing to be with Him.
- Participating in Holy Communion has effects on our daily lives as well: we profess Jesus Christ, share His love, and renounce those things that could prevent us from having eternal fellowship with Him.
