Christian life

Message:

Obedience to the will of God is blessed.

Bible text: Deuteronomy 28: 2

And all these blessings shall come upon you and overtake you, because you obey the voice of the Lord your God.

Summary:

The intention to live in accordance with God's will results in blessing for human beings.

- In the Old Testament, blessing was mainly of a material nature.
- In the New Testament, non-material blessing became more and more important.
- If we live in accordance with God's will, we too can be a blessing.
