Message:

Resurrection and the redemption that comes with it are possible for both the dead and the living.

Bible text: Job 14: 7

For there is hope for a tree, if it is cut down, that it will sprout again, and that its tender shoots will not cease.

Summary:

- Job's suffering and loss seemed final and hopeless.
- The image of the tree that has been cut down and sprouts new shoots refers to the redemptive power of Christ.
- The gospel teaches us that this earth never has the last word. Only Jesus Christ does.
