

Sharing our hope in God

Divine Service

Wednesday, November 19, 2025

Message:

We profess our hope in God by telling people about our personal experiences with God.

Bible text: Psalm 62: 7–8

In God is my salvation and my glory; the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God. Trust in Him at all times, you people; pour out your heart before Him; God is a refuge for us.

Summary:

- The psalmist recounts his own experiences with God and shares them with others.
- Let us strive to point others to God by testifying to our own experiences or those others have had.
