Theme:

What it means to be a Christian

Message:

Faith is revealed through works.

Bible text: James 2: 15–16

If a brother or sister is naked and destitute of daily food, and one of you says to them, “Depart in peace, be warmed and filled,” but you do not give them the things which are needed for the body, what does it profit?

Summary:

- Faith and works are closely related.
- Works are the visible signs of a living faith.
- Faith that is supported by love manifests itself in kindness and compassion for others.
